

I am appalled by Sinclair Broadcasting's decision to force their stations to air an anti-Kerry documentary just days before the election. Their zeal to sway the results of a national election only underscores the dangers of media consolidation. When a company uses the public airwaves to advocate a position, without at least giving equal time to the other side, "freedom of the press" takes on a whole new meaning. Please do not let this abuse of their power to unchecked.